

Personal Assistance (PA1) service description
SERVICE CODE REQUIREMENTS:

General Description:

Personal Assistance services (PA1) refer to the provision of hands on care of both a medical and non-medical supportive nature specific to the needs of a medically stable person who has a surrogate available to direct the care. This service is intended to reinforce an individual's strengths, while substituting or compensating for the absence, loss, diminution, or impairment of physical or cognitive functions. Services will be outlined in the individual support plan and will not duplicate other covered waiver supports. This service may include skilled medical care and health maintenance to the extent permitted by State law and certified by the recipient's physician or health-care professional. Housekeeping, chore services and other reasonable and necessary activities, which are incidental to the performance of the person-based care, may also be furnished as part of this service.

Personal Assistance services (PA1) allows families and other individuals to care for persons with disabilities in natural home settings through the provision of support, supervision and direct-self-care, as well as communications, mobility, social skills development and behavioral management along with other specialized interventions

Personal assistance services are generally provided on a regularly scheduled basis, though they may be offered on an intermittent or as-needed basis and are available to persons who live alone or with roommates or with spouse, children or other family. Services may be provided in the recipient's place of residence or in settings in the community.

PA1 services are available to persons participating in the Self-Administered Services method, only.
